SENIORS

As Frosh we had only just begun.
It was the best of everything in our Sophomore year as the world turned on "International Day."
Always "consider yourself part of the family," for we made it that way in our Junior Con.
Cherish each memory of the past; dream of experiences in the future. Live every feeling of today now. Today will be a memory and there's always another tomorrow.
Today is you and you've only just begun.

JUNIORS

Being a junior, you are the con, and a racer for a spot in the parking lot. You are the one with a starving face longing for the second lunch or dieting to be a Gonzaga Prep cheerleader. You have inherited a permanent place on the gym floor during assemblies and the right to answer the phone in the Junior Hall. As a junior, you may go to your first school prom and are the organizers for the Dad-Daughter Dance. But most of all, as juniors, you are the Holy Names Academy Tigers, the class of '72.

HAPPINESS

is being with your friends

Terri -

To begin with I never met anyone as weird as you. Don't take that as an insult cuz' it wasn't meant to be one. Actually it's pretty good to be that weird! At least you're one of a kind!

Remember to always smile, o.k.

Always Candy

Terri ;)

(note the correct punctuation!) It means so much to me to be considered as a token friend. I mean, if we both open up to each other, we break down the personal barriers, who knows but that a true, deep & true relationship could begin between us.

How meaningful and relevant! Be a good little friend (alias sophomore) and don't forget our more than valuable friendship. Peace

Shannon

Terri,
I really had fun with you in Spanish this year. I hope we are in Spanish II next year. How fun this summer will be good.

always your friend

Terri - having a friend like you is rare. I have a few others and very few people I look up to. I am very dominant and very peaceful to have Terri as my friend. Love always, Terri. You are a cool person & have been a great friend to me and your summer and the free time you have given me has been great. Love, H. N. A.

Terri,

In a few more days we'll be big sophomores & not stupid frosh. Being a frosh with you made it worth while. I hope next year we will become better friends so stay cute, sweet & in touch! Have a fun summer!

Love,
Terri Allen
